Business Seminars

Finite Element Analysis (FEA)
Dr. Reza Kashani, UD's Professor of Mechanical Engineering,
October 20th 11:00am to 1:00 pm

Want a shorter time to market with a larger share? Finite Element Analysis (FEA) is the Answer!

At this seminar, you will be able to preview and learn more about how FEA is one of the most valuable and powerful CAE tools used in the development process today. FEA can reduce the number of physical prototypes, boost product quality, and can help avoid warranty problems.

The AIM Center has added FEA to their list of Computer Aided Engineering (CAE) Services available to all areas manufacturers.

The LEAN Office
Donna Hoying,
AIM Center's LEAN Expert
Thursday, October 27th
11:00am to 1:00 pm

What is a LEAN Office? Want to eliminate the waste and non-value added activities in the office area?

At this seminar, you will learn how to apply the Value Stream Mapping Process to your administrative/office processes, such as design, accounting and purchasing, and slash lead times 40-90%!

Donna will also give you a 6 step process and the 8 guidelines to follow to

Tax Tips with the Experts

Battelle & Battelle
Wednesday, November 16th,
11:00am to 1:00pm

Taxes out of control? The experts from Battelle & Battelle will be here to give you the latest ideas just for manufacturers to help you survive next year's tax
